We learn that an interesting revival of religion is in progress at Ephesus Church, near Asbury, about six miles from this city. The attendance is very large both day and night, and although it has been but a few days since the meeting commenced, there have already been quite a number of conversions and about twenty-five are at the anxious seat. Capitol Park.

In New York the public parkseven that of the world-renowned Central-are open for the pleasure of the children, where they may enter and gambol on the green turf; and we can see no reason why the same thing cannot be allowed them here in the Capitol park. Let the children enjoy themselves.

Pound the Hogs. We think, with many others, that it is about time to enforce that part of the city ordinance relating to hogs, and take them up and pound them. Meeting of Tobacco Manufacturers. At a meeting of the manufacturers of tobacco held in the city of Raleigh, August 2d, it was resolved that the next meeting of the tobacco manufacturers of this Congressional District be held at Henderson at 20'clock p. m., on the first Tuesday, (the 5th day) in September next. It is earnestly desired that there shall be a very full attendance at the meeting. Ice Water.

Ice water is denounced on grounds that it tends to produce congestion of the brain, impairs the digestive organs of the stomach and destroys the teeth. A physician says he regards water as the most wholesome beverage we can use, but it should be taken at a temperature above thirty two degrees to be safe.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Col. Thomas S Kenan.

RALEIGH, N. C. Aug. 3, 1876. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS:-Like Scipio and Maximus when beholding the statues of their illusbeholding the statues of their illustrious countrymen, we always become "violently agitated" with feelings of gladness and delight at the success of friends in every department of life. While sliting in the City Hall at the late State Democratic Convention, simply as a spectator, I felt peculiarly happy when the name of my old fellow-townsman and neighbor, Colonel Thomas S. Kenan, was announced as the candidate for Attorney-General. I have never seen such a pepular demonstration made by any Convention as was then made for him, Governor Vance only excepted—In a recent visit through the border counties of North Carolina and Virginia I was frequently asked something about Colonel Kenan, and once about his family history; by a lady the daughter of a late distinguished North Carolinian. It then occurred to me that I had seen nothing in this rethat I had seen nothing in this respect about him in the newspapers, and I promised myself when I came home I would write something about Colonel Kenan is a native of Ke-nansville, the county seat of Duplin county, from whose family the town took its name. From the earliest history of the county his has been an honored name among the people. His great grandfather, James Kenan, was a leader in his day and time, and was one of the delegates from Duplin to the first general meeting of the deputies of the inhabitants of this Colony that met at Newbern the 25th of August, 1774; at Hillsboro 21st of August, 1775; and at Halifax 12th of November, 1776. He was State Sena-tor from 1777 to 1791. His grandfather, Hon. Thomas Kenan, was a native of the county and represesented it several times in the State Senate, and from 1805 to 1811 was a member of the United States Congress from his district. He moved to Alabams and was an booored member of the Legislature of that State for many years. H's father, Hon. Owen R. Kenan, now living in Kenansville, the most amiable gentleman and purest min I ever knew, represented the county a number of times in the State Legislature. and his district in the first Congress of the Confederate States. Colonel Kenan represented the county, since the late war, in the General Assembly, and was nominated for Congress in his District I think twice. So from this it will be seen that Colonel Kenan has descended from a truly representative family and is emphatieally, himself, a representative man, And no wonder it is so, for I can say what I know to be so, from a lifetime acquaintance with him and his fam-"that the breath of suspicion never fell from the lips of any man about him or them. There is an elevation of character about him and his family seldom to be found anywhere, and only to be known to be admired. I would to God that all men, everywhere, who in this Centennial year aspire to honored rosition, were such as he, for pecula-tion and thievery would know no place in their hearts, and the people of this distracted country would once more rejoice in honest constitutional government. Yes, sir, we could all "join hands across the bloody chasm" from the St. Law rence to the Rio Grande, and from ocean to ocean, and shout for "Re-conciliation and Reform," and sing the glorious songs of "a year of ju-bilee," for the people of this great and glorious country would once more be free. No wonder the distinguished chairman of the delegation from Duplin said, when he cast the vote of the county for Kenan, that "every white man who went to the polls in Duplin would east his vote for Col. Kenan in November next." In conclusion, I would say that all along the border counties where I went I never saw such enthusiasm among the people. The tide of "Re-conciliation and Reform" is grandly moving off and will sweep radicalism from the high and low piaces of the land. Yours, &c.,

AN OLD DUPLINITE.

Letter from Carteret. BEAUFORT, N. C., Aug. 2, 1876.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS: Thinking it would be of interest to some of your many readers to bear from this community occasionally, I will endeavor to write you a brief

Politics are all the go. There is a Tilden and Vance Club down here, with a membership of one hundred and fifty voters and increasing rapidly at every meeting. W. C. King, the popular proprietor of the Ocean House, is president.

Hon. T J. Jarvis addresses the citizens of Casteret next Thuisday night on the great political issues of the day, and you can just rely on this county doing her full duty in the coming November contest. I learn from one of the leading and most influential citizens of Beaufort that we will certainly carry old Carteret by three hundred majority.

Fort Macon looks somewhat deserted since Company I, Second Ar-tillery, commanded by Captain T. B. Hamilton, left for Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, Only Company L, of the same regiment, now remaius.

There is quite a number of visitors down here from different sections of North Carolida, spending the summer, and a good many more are looked forduring the month of August than they have yet had. There is to be a very large ponypenning on the 9th and 10th. Crowds are expected down to witness the fun.

The Eagle is doing noble work for our cause in this District. Coionel Waddell will certainly be reelected by an increased majority.

Letter from Chatham, HAYWOOD, N. C., Aug. 3, 1876. TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEWS:

A move was made a few days since to obtain names for the purpose of forming a Vance, Tilden and Reform Club in the Cape Fear township in this county. Nearly every white man in this vicinity was there and gave his name, including two or three that have he retofore voted the Radical ticket.

The recent canvass made in this county by Hon. John Manning and others, will considerably increase the vote for the Constitutional amendments.

I see that tramps in organized bands are roaming over the North. It is said, sooner or later, "chickenwill come home to roost." The South has been sufficiently cursed for the past eight years by tramps from that section and native red-legged grass-hoppers, and there is unmistakable evidence that the white men of this State will rid themselves of the whole breed next fall.

The devil's co-workers, presided over by the Reverend (or extra-mileage) Hood, will find few white men in Chatham voting for their "blackand-tan" ticket. Hope Governor Vance, Judge D. G.

Fowle and others will visit us before the election. The school-circulars, printed for us at your office, are highly complimented for the neat execution of the

The race for Congress was between Stephen A. Douglass, of Greensboro, and Jim Boyd, of Graham. Jim beat Steve two votes, and then Steve was made elector for the district. Accident to a Well Known Young Lady. We learn from the Morganton Blade that Mr. R. W. Guyon, formerly of Newbern, took Miss Addie Avery (s young lady well known) to ride on ast Friday evening, when the horses became frightened and ran away, only missing Beak Neck, a fearful precipice, by a few feet. Mr. Guion had presence of mind sufficient to pitch Miss A. into a soft place, fearing she would be thrown against a tree or be otherwise injured. Mr. Gulon was thrown between the horses and badly bruised. One of the and his wounds from the kicking very painful. Miss A. escaped with slight injuries and is able to walk

F. H. Busbee, Esq.,

[Burke Blade.] F. H. Busbee, Esq., of Raleigh, thi gifted Presidential Elector of the Fourth District, by invitation, addressed the Tilden and Vance Club of this place Saturday last. We will not attempt a synopsis of his address. If we did so we would exhaust all our campaign thunder, for in a speech of an hour he summed up all the inquities of radicalism, and we have never seen a more attentive audience. The best of it was, too, that his audience constituted a majority of the thinking people of Burke county.

Dr. McAden, says the Observer, is one of the most reliable business men and euterprising citizens we have. What Can be Cured need not be endured, although what can't must be. Among the bodily ills ausceptible of complete removal by that benigh tonic as delicrative, Hoste ter's Stomach Bitters, are general debility, malarial fevers, constitution, dyspepsia, liver disorder, and nervousness. Its remedial capabilities are, however by no means limited to these maladies. Its properties as a blood depure t render it extremely serviceable in expelling the acrid impurities which produce those painful disorders, rheumatism and gout, and its invigorating and mildly stimulating effect upen the kidneys and bledder constitute it a useful medicine for impelling those organs to a complete performance of their functions when they are weak and inactive. In fact there is scarcely any disease of which fact there is scarcely any disease of which weakness is an accompaniment, in which this admi-able medicine cannot be used with advantage.

THE Legislature of South Carolina nearly all negroes, passed a law some sessions ago for the benefit of the land owner, giving him a lien for rent in preference to the claims for the advance of provisions. In North Carolina a somewhat similar law is denounced by Republican demagogues-because a Democratic Legislature passed it.

A TILDEN AND VANCE CLUB is to be organized in each ward of this city. Such clubs should be formed in each township in the county. The thorough organization of the young men of the State is the surest means of victory. They possess a spirit, an energy, a determination and enthuslasm which never fails to win, where it has anything like a fair showing

WE are witnessing in this campaign what has never been seen before in North Carolina-Republicans abandoning their party to join the Democrats. It has become an every day occurrence. Almost every mail brings news of such conversions. On the contrary, we hear of no Demoerats going over to the enemy-with the solitary exception of Lot Humphrey. These facts are among those sure signs which point to a decisive triumph this tall.

GRANT AND THE NORTH CARO-LINA RADICALS.

The Craven county Republican Convention, which selected delegates to the State nominating convention, and which recommended Hon. Thos. Settle and William A. Smith for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, 1st. That to President Grant the thanks of the Republicans of this country are eminently due for his upright administration of the government," &c.

The Seventh Congressional District Republican Convention which met in Salisbury on the 30th of May adopted the following resolution:

7. That we endorse Ulysses S. Grant as soldier of approved valor, a statesman of enlightened views, and a patriot of untarnished integrity, under whose administration the finances of the nation have been placed upon a sound basis," &c.

Other resolutions of this character were adopted by many of the Republican Conventions. But these are enough. They are sample bricksone from the East and the other from the West.

The Republicans of this State are down upon records that change not, that cannot be altered, that can never be destroyed-as endorsers of President Grant personally, and his administration as a whole. They solemnly resolve that President Grant is "a patriot of untarnished integrity;" and tell us that the thanks of the Republicans of North Carolina are eminently due for "his upright administration of the government."

Mr. Blaine was the favorite of the North Carolina delegation at Cincinnati. Their confidence in him was implicit. What Blaine says, therefore, must command the respect of even the most rabid Grant man.

Now, Mr. Blaine is reported as having said a few days ago that he has 'no influence with the present administration"; and that "no man bas who is not a thief by instinct."

This comes from the most popular man in the Republican party-the man who came within a few vo'es of receiving its nomination for President.

But, the Republican Revenue officers, postmasters and the like, who manipulate the negroes of this State, tell their ignorant, blind dupes that Grant is "a patriot of untarnished integrity," and that he deserves the thanks of the party for "his upright administration."

Will honest Republicans follow such deceivers longer?

"WHAT DOES IT MEAN?"

Under this heading, the New York Herald comments upon Blaine's remark that no one has influence with Grant's Administration who is not a thief by instinct,"

Under the same heading we propose to direct the attention of the public to a serious matter in this State.

The Newberne Democrat says: "We learn that letters sent by some of our Democratic friends in this place are either maliciously tost or destroyed by some postoffice official.

We know that a letter, enclosed in an envelope of official size, stamped with the requisite amount of postage, and addressed to the NEWS, was placed in the Post Office at Newberne, by a prominent Democrat, about the 17th of June last; and that it has never reached us. This letter contained some statements about the history of the carpet-bagger who, as chairman of the Craven County Republican Convention, reported the mendacious resolution thanking Grant for his "upright administration." We are informed that this Republican worthy is assistant Postmaster, or at least has something to do with the Post Office at Newberne; and that he is one of the editors of that low, degraded, lying organ of carpetbagism and thievery-the Newberne Times.

Now, what does the "loss" of the letter exposing his rascalities mean? Is he one of those favorites with the present administration, who is "a thief by instinct?" We wish information upon this subject. Give us light.

Letters are sometimes accidentally ost in the mails, and the postmasters and mail agents are blameless; but, we have reason to believe otherwise n this case.

THIEVES BY INSTINCT.

We clip the following from the New York Herald:

"It is reported that Mr. Munn, of Chicago, asked Mr. Blaine to use his influence with General Grant for some purpose or other, Mr. Blaine, according to the story, replied in these terms :- "I have no influence with the present administration. No man has who is not a thief by instinct." This is the most serious condemnation ever passed upon Grant. It is written by the most popu ar man in the Republican party—the man who came within an ace of receiving its nomination for President. No date is given to Mr. Blaine's letter, so we do not know whether it was written before or after the Convention.

This puts the Republicans in a serious dilemma. They must say that Blaine, the man whom they wanted to place in the Presidency, does not ! speak the truth, or else the officeholders who now have influence with Grant, are thieves "by instinct."

THE editor of the Hillsboro Re corder was told at Chapel Hill the other day that the late postmastethere "withheld documents forwarded by Mr. Davis to his constituents. Mr. Davis can't be defeated in that way. One of the great issues in this campaign is the fight against the thieves. We have joined battle with them, and every dishonorable act of Republican officials shows how nec. essary it is that the Republican party be driven from the seats of power which they have desecrated.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

Edwin Booth has not been in California for twenty years. He will appear at the California Theatre on September 1. Bret Harte's new play, "Two Men of at least, the Providence Press says. Earl Dudley refuses to make good his bet of £20,000 to £7,000 on Petrarch, because he believes the colt was pulled at the last Ascot. The affair is creating quite a stir in racing circles in England.

New York Herald : The first thing a San Francisco man does when he comes to New York is to get his boots blacked: the first thing a Boston man does is to get something to eat; the first thing a Chicago man does is to ask a policeman where is the nearest barroom to buy postage stamps.

The Rev. John S. C. Abbott has no hope of recovery. From his dving bed at Fair Haven he sent recently to an autograph collector two cards, one of which was inscribed: "John S. C. Abbott, daily expecting the arrival of the 'Chariot of Israel' to take him to his Heavenly home. July 14, 1876." On the other was wrrtten : " Penciled on a sick and dying bed of great happiness.

Murad V. is a Turkish Sultan of rather a different type from those who founded the Ottoman dominion. His proclamation to his army in Bosnia winds up with the words : " Far from you. I shall yet pray for the glory of your arms." This decidedly goes beyond the famous description of Louis of France watching his armies from the safe side of the Rhine, and bewailing his great station which forbade his crossing the river with them

Mr. Thomas Hazlehurst, who, from his unbounded munificence to the church of his faith, was known as the Prince of Methodism died recently in England at the age of 61 years. It is thought that during his life he gave $250,000 for the building of chapels, and that he laid the foundation stones of 100 chapels in Great Britain and on the Continent. He spent the latter part of his life in writing and printing sermons, of which it is estimated that he gave away more than a million of copies.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Bristow has taken the stump in Vernont for Haves.

Brooklyn Argus: Bluford Wilson testifies that he made a long argument to convince Grant that he didn't employ spies to watch him. The only regret the American people feel in this matter is, not that he made the argument, but that he didn't employ the spies.

Governor Tilden's letter, every one may at once take for granted, will hit the mark squarely. In statesmanlike style, Mr. Tilden will grasp the great subject of reform and hard-money, and give watch-words and rallying cries for the mighty army of the opposition -N. F.

The World publishes a carefully prepared tabular statement, from which it appears that from the foundation of the government to 1860, a period of seventyone years, only $28,640,170.30 was expended for public buildings. Since 1860 to the present time, however, embracing a period of fifteen years, the sum of $41,-269,746.68 have been expended for public buildings.

How is Governor Hayes-Presidentelect if such should be the result-to break with Secretary Chandler, the manager of the Republican canvass; with Morton, with Logan and the like politicians, his friends and supporters? How, unless he does break with them, can he accomplish the work of Reform which the people will expect from the successor of General Grant ?-Baltimore Sun. New York Herald: It is far better for the reform republicans that the party should be beaten than that they should help once more, and for another four years, to saddle the country with the rule of such men as the Spencers, Sargents, Packards, Shepherds, Babcocks, Logans, Carpenters, Frelinghuysens, Robesons, Camerons and Mortons. We advise them to make their influence clearly predominant or else to abandon what, if they cannot do so, must be a hopeless task. This whole business of the President's desertion of the side of the prosecution, and his allying himself with the scamps who were engaged in a conspiracy to defraud the Government, is shameful; and the only consolation we can obtain in connection with the matter is that, at the worst, President Grant and his cronies will have but a few months' more lease of power, and that however the November election may result, there will be a change for the better in the Executive branch of the Government after the 4th of next March .- Philadelphia Telegraph (Rep.)

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

A Tilden and Vance club has been formed in the second ward of Wilmington with John C. James as President.

We should organize everywhere, for much is at stake and every white man is expected to strike once more for freedom and reform.

Hillsboro Recorder: Put down the Democrats of Orange County as a unit, and a big one for Constitutional amendnents. All think alike and will act alike on this question.

Statesville Landmark: Our Eastern fellow citizens must be rescued from the galling and humiliating yoke of negro rule. Their only relief is in the adoption of the proposed amendments.

Newberne Democrat: A large and working Tilden and Vance Club has been formed in the Sixth Township. The county is represented as being in a blaze of excitement. Ten clubs will be at work in Craven by the first Saturday in August.

Of Tom Settle, the Hillsboro Recorder says: There never has been presented to the people of North Carolina a more vulnerable target for the sport of assailants; never a man who has made tergiversa-tion and treachery so close a study, and thus far so profitable a pursuit. He has been on all sides and with every party. He has been alike false to all. He has had but one aim in life, and that was always to be on the winning side and always to hold office. And to accomplish this he has been false to his conscience, false to his instincts, false to his race, false to his country, bartering each and all by turns for the mean rewards of office, riding into power on the backs of a race he once helped to hold in subjection, or of white men whom in other days he would have scorned to recognize.

Reidsville News: Judge Cloud and Gen Douglas, were discussing the chances of beating our old and efficient representative in Congress, Gep. A. M. Scales; when the Judge remarked that "you can't find a man in the district who can beat Scales," whereupon Gen. Douglass says, "I can do it." Then Judge replied, Gen. AUTHORIZED CAPITAL, ASSE 18, MAY 5, 1876, HOME OFFICE THERE IS A LONE COOL NOOK. There's a lone cool nook where the shade is there's a lone cool nook where the shade is deep,

And the waves of a river softly run to the shore where odotous musk ats creep from dripping toots when the day is done.
Between green rushes a d silver reds,
Where dragon flies are ev r at play,
A windinz path to the water leads,
And there a boat lies rocking away—
Rocking, rocking, at rest and asleep
In tha 1 ne cool nook where the shade is deep.

When the day is hot you can lie at rest In the b at and dream till the sun ight While the loving sounds that the ear loves are whispered by waves and the long reed blades;

dayi e with trumpet-blossom of red slightly flung on the branches high a le ning tree. In such a bed, forgetting the world, you may idly le,
cking, rocking, at rest and aslee;
that lone cool rook where the shade is

And at night, when the sky is full of stars, When shadowy birds flit down the hore And the water-snake glides to the andy You may touch the waves with a noise

Contrasted Scenes in the South. [Baltimore Sun.]

We publish this morning an interesting letter describing and contrasting two diffent scenes on the Fourth of July last in Georgia and in the adjacent State of South Carolina. The one is a charming picture of the celebration of our national anniversary at Crawfordville, Ga., upon the grounds of the Hon. Alexander H. S,epheus, and in the presence and under the auspices of the invalid statesman. In this celebration both races cordially joined, although it was so arranged that the most active participants were the colored pecde. The affection thereby manifesled, and the kindly feelings they ret: rn, are told with great clearness and really picturesque effect by the writer of the letter.

In sharp contrast to this is the occurrence, on the same day, at Hamburg, a dilapidated village of South Carnina, opposite to and divided only from the fine town of Augusta Ga, by the Savannah river. Hamburg is a place inhabited by colored people mainly. The trial justice of the village is Prince Rivers, a colored man, who is also a reputed major general in the militia of South Carolina. He is the same person who, some a:paths ago, was suspected of complicity with the foolish attempt to provoke hostilities between the blacks and whites of Georgia, and which for a few days gave rise to great excitement and almost led to an armed collision between the races. Some colored men were arrested; the leaders who had incited them to assemble in arms took to flight, and after a patient hearing owing to the impartial rulling of the judge and the good common sense of the Georgia jury, attentive to the calm appeal of ex-Gov. Johnson, the prisoners were acquitted. In some parts of South Carolina the feeling between the two races is unfortunately very different; and in Hamburg on the border line, which has become a sort of suburb of Augusta, Ga., and the resort of idle and vicious blacks from the interior of South Carolina, there is much bitterness between the two races. As Georgia is under a democratic administration, whilst in South Carolina the republicans control the State, the d fference between the conduct of the two races would seem to be mainly owing to the different manuer in which the affairs of the two States are managed, and to the conciliating fluences exerted in the one, and the antagonistic influences at work in the other. However this may be, it is certainly worth whileto consider and inquire as to the different circumstances which produce such different results.

How Niagara Almost Ran Dry.

On March 29, 1848, a remarkable phenomenon occurred. The preceding winter had been intensely cold, and the ice formed on Lake Erie was unusually thick. In the warm days of early spring this mass of ice was loosened around the shores of the lake and detached from them. During the forencon of the day named, a stiff easterly wind moved it up the lake. A little before sunset, the wind chopped suddenly round and blew a gale from the west. This brought the vast field of ice back again with such tremendous force that it filled in the neck of the lake and its outlet, so as to form a very effective dom, that caused a remarkable diminution in the outflow of the water Of course, it needed but little time for the falls to drain off the water below this dam. The consequnce was that on the morning of the following day the river was nearly half gone. The American channel had dwindled to a deep and narrow creek The British channel seemed to have been smitten with quick consumption, and to be fast passing away. Far up from the head of Goat Island out beyond the old Tower to the deep channel of the Horseshoe fall, the water was gone. The rocks were bare, black and forbidding. The roar of Niagara had subsided to a moan. This extraordinary syncope of 'he waters lasted all the day, and night closed over the strange scene. But during the night the dam gave way, and the next morning the deep river was restored in all its strength, beauty and majesty. - Scribner's Monthly.

Thursday, the 20th, a negro at Red Hill, Edgefield county, S. C., committed a rape on a little white girl, five years of age, daughter of Louis Prescott, inflicting tearful injuries. Last Tuesday evening a party of men took the negro into the woods and hung him.

Jarvis and Engelhard-Speaking at Battleboro.

[Correspondence Roanoke News.]

Last saturday our streets were crowded with people of both colors to hear the speeches of Mr. Jarvis and Maj. Engelhard, After Mr. Fitts Engelhard. After Mr. Fitts made his address to the people on a riculture which was about noon. Mr. Jarvis rose before an intelligent a-sembly, that had gathered around the flag pole, and commenced his truly elequent and telling speech, by saying that this was the first attempt of his during this campaign. He knew he would be elected, for it had always been his luck. The negroes paid equally as good attention as the whites, and seemed to be deeply impressed with what he said. He showed clearly the great and wilful ex-travagance of the Radical party, by figures obtained from their own official records, and asked the people if they could afford to buy flour from that party. He was frequently dis-turbed by showers of rain, but his hearers insisted that they could stand it if he could.

Maj Engelhard then was introduced, and made one of his usual souls stirring speeches, of about an hour's duration. He pointed out the miserable condition that we might be subjected to if we allowed this opportunity to pass us without the election of our ticket. He appealed with sympathetic devotion to the people around him to keep the counties of Edgecombe and Nash from the doleful condition of Jones, where white women had actually been let out by negro commissioners to negroes that could neither read nor write. Who knows but some of your wives or children will be subjected to the same condition if you sit idly down and do not do your duty in this Suicide of a Bishop.

The cable announces that the Most Rev. Samuel Butcher, Protestant Episcopal bishop of Meath, premier bishop of Ireland, committed suicide on Saturday by cutting his throat with a razor whilst laboring under temporary insanity, caused by congestion of the lungs and brochitis. Bishop Butcher was the second son of Vice Admiral Butcher. He was born in 1811, and was educated in Trinity College, Dublin. His scholastic attainments were considerable, and in 1837 he was elected fellow of his college. In 1850 he was made professor of ecc'e-iastical history, and two years after became professor of divinity. In 1866 he was consecrated bishop of Meath, which position be continued to held until the day of his death. Dr. Butcher's theological works are numerous and important. Among the more important among them are "Sermons on the Crimean War," 'Supreme Authority of the Scriptures," and a treatise on the "Relative Value of Divine and Human Knowledge" The diocese of Meath was valued at $22,500 per annum, and had a patronage of thirty-five livings.

Cruelties of the Eastern War.

A German traveler in Turkey, and authority on Turkish subjects, Julius Von Wickede, writes to the Cologne Gazette that in point of barbarity in warfare, there is nothing whatever to choose between the Servians, Montenegrins and other socalled "Christians," and the Turks. The Montenegrins always cut off the heads of their captives, smoke them and hang them up in their tents as trophies, while it is the practice of the Bosnian "Christians" to bury their captives up to the waist in sand and use them for targets. "If," says the writer, "there are any Germans who are disposed to sympathize with the Servians and their allies because they are fighting for freedom, humanity and civilization, this is a grievous error." The war has arisen simply from the warlike spirit of the Turkish slave, from the incessant agitation of a certain party in Russia, and from the ambitious plans of the Panslavists, who wish to establish a great South Sclavonian State on the Balkap peninsula and the lower Dan-

Republican Nominations. A convention of the Republican party of the Seventh District, met at Wilkesboro on Saturday last, 27th inst., and nominated Col. Thomas J. Dula for Congress. He is the com-petitor of Hon. Wm. M. Robbins, who, at the last election, carried every county in the district, and will do it again by increased majorities. D .: I. W. Jones was chosen Elector. On the same day the Republican Senatorial District Convention met at the same place, and nominated T. N. Cooper, of Iredell, and Rev. Sam-uel P. Smith, of Wilkes, for the Senate, from iredell, Alexander and Wilkes. The Wilkes county Repubican Convention the same day nominated John Quincy Adams Bryan and Wash. Hayes, for the House. J. Q. A. expected the nomination for the Senate, and this is the "why" of his recent canvass of Iredell against A. C. Sharpe, Esq.

Week of Prayer.

The week of prayer appointed by the Bishops of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, commences on Friday, the 4th of August, and will be observed throughout the jurisdiction. Both churches of that denomination in this city will hold services at their respective places of worship on Friday morning at 11 o'clock .-Wilmington Journal.

AN AFFAIR OF HONOR.-The Augusta (Ga.) Constitutionalist states that Gen. M. W. Gary, of Edgefield, S. C., arrived in that city a few days since and sent Mr. Dawson of the Charleston News and Courier an invitation to meet him outride of South Carolina, in order to adjust a misunderstanding that has arisen between them. The Constitutionalist says it is said that Gen. Butler was the bearer of the note, and that Mr. Dawson had refused to accept the call, and stated that he could be found in Charleston at his place of business.

A Mathematical Genius, Mr. W. H. Hix, aged twenty-four, lives in Hopewell Township, Anderson county. He is styled "the Doctor" and the prophet of 1876." Without education, being unable to read or write, he displays the greatest familiarity with the ordinary rules of arithmetic Almost instantaneously he reduces a given number of miles to feet and inches; years to hours minutes and seconds, and calculates the price of a bale of cotton of a given number of pounds at a given rate per pound. Similar problems are solved with equal facility .- Charleston News and Courier.

Less than eighteen months ago the Rechester Democrat (Rep.) said: "If Governor Tilden should be entirely deserted by his own party he will be sustained by the masses of the Republican party, who, above all things, wish for a pure and economical man-agement of the affairs of the state." Now that paper abuses and vilifies Governor Tilden, but we imagine that the masses of its party think now as they did when that article was writ-

CONGRESS.

Passage by the Senate of the River and Harbor Bill--Soft-Money Democrats for Tilden and Hendricks-Knott, Blaine, and the Caldwell Telegram--Knott Exonerated, &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, D. C. August 3 .-Senate. - The Senate during the morning hour passed bill to limit and fix the signal service, which authorizes the president to detail certain army officers as assistants to the chief signal officer.

The joint resolution introduced by West, authorizing the Postmaster-General to accept from the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, for mail service between San Francisco and China, the steamships City of Sidney and City of San Francisco, passed.

Davis, of Weft Virginia, submitted a resolution to pay the funeral expenses of the late Senator Caperton, of West Virginia. Agreed to.

Mr. Sargent said the bill to give effect to the Hawaiin treaty had not been acted upon yet, on account of the impeachment trial and other matters. He gave notice that he would ask the Senate to take it up for consideration as early as possible, as business interests were being disturbed by the delay.

The River and Harbor bill was resumed and passed as it came from the committee, and goes to the House for concurrence. Final vote, 34 to 11. Nomination-H. F. French, of Massachusetts, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury. Assistant Treasurers are instructed to exchange silver for legal tenders Adjourned.

House -Judge Knott is making a personal explanation in the Blaine matter: a full House is paying marked attention. When he concludes, fillibustering over the silver bill, which comes up in order, will probably consume the entire day.

Mr. Vorhees is quoted as saying that the soft-money Democrats of Indiana are all in line for Tilden and Hendricks.

Mr. Hurd, of Ohio, from the Judiciary Committee, submitted the unanimous report of that committee in regard to the Caldwell telegram, entirely exonerating Mr. Knott, the chairman, from any intention or desire of withholding it improperly from the knowledge of the committee or of the House. Mr. Knott, chairman of the committee, said that he had had no intention to speak on the subject, as he was perfectly satisfied with the report of the committee exonerating him from all suspicion-either of a mistake of judgment or of having been actuated by an unworthy motive, but he had seen an article lately publishin the Philadelphia North American re-asserting that the Caldwell dispatch had been infamously suppressed by him, (Knott,) and holding up to the contempt of the country a man who should so debase himself by concealing the proof of the innocence of a political foe, and he felt called upon to speak in his own behalf; it was however peculiarly painful for him to speak on the subject in the absence of the gentleman from Maine, (Blaine,) who had found it necessary, for the promotiou of his own personal ends, to make an unjustifiable and disingenuous imputation on him, (Knott.) Notwithstanding the erroneous impression with which the popular mind had been filled by the sublime piece of acting; notwithstanding the flood of vituperation and calumny which was hurled on him: (Knott,) by the Repuilican press, he was conscious of the rectitude of his intentions, conscious of the correctness of his judgment, conscious of having done his duty to his committee, and conscious that he had done nothing more than he ought to have done. He had waited long and patiently for House before opening

Mr. Blaine's reappearance in the his lips in his own vindication, and had only to be disappointed by the news of Mr. Blaine's resignation. It was said that the hand of God was upon him-that he was sick; whether he was really affected in body and mind; whether he was really prostrated, or whether he was only acting a part to postpone investigation until the popular interest had somewhat subsided, he (Knott) did not know-he only knew that the gentleman from Maine was not present. [He reviewed the action of the committee in the matter of the Little Rock & Fort Smith Rail road bonds, and aliuded to the tes_ timony of some of the witnesses at great length. He spoke earnestly and bitterly, developing the matter in all its details.]

Mr. Knott was replied to by Messrs. Hale and Fryle, of Maine, Lawrence, of Ohio, and McCrary, of Iowa; and as the Republican members of the committee desired to withdraw their sent to the report, the report was, on motion of Mr. Hurd, recommitted for that purpose.

A joint resolution that Congress adjourn at 12 o'clock m. Monday next, was adopted Adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

Passage of Bill by the Senate Making Important Appropriations-Senators Ransom and Merrimon Supporting the Bill.

WASHINGTON, D. C., August 3 .-Col. B. W. Frobel, chairman of the Committee on National Water-Routes of the National Board of Commerce and Navigation, is here, but will leave for Atlanta, Georgia, in a few days. He furnishes the following in reference to the bill which passed the Senate to-day: The River and Harbor bill, as it passed the Senate, reduced the House bill about $700,000. This bill is more liberal to the touth and any previous bill of the king and any previous bill of the king and its general features give satisfy the the water line in-terest. All of the our national lines recommended by the Senate's Committee on Transportation Routes have received recognition. The Fox River Line, the James River and Kaunawaha, and the Tennessee, Coosa, Etowah and Ocmulgee receive in the aggregate about the same amounts. Galveston harbor, outer bar, gets $150 000, and a special order for a survey of the Mine harbr; Passcaralla Inlet $20,000; Sabine River $40,000; Savannah harbor gets $52,000. A persistent effort was made to defeat the bill, but this was successfully fought by the friends of the bill; among these, Norwood, Maxey, Gordon, Spencer, West, Ransom, and Merrimon. Hon. W. H. Felton, of Ga., was on hand at all times and gave efficient aid. The bill also appropriates $40,000 for surveys, to be expended under the direction of the Secretary of War. · CHEYENNE, Aug. 3.-Geo. Powell Hay, contractor at Fort Fetterman, reports that yesterday evening thirty Indians attacked A. H. Reed's wagon train, loaded with stores for Fort Fetterman, killed and scalped the wagon-master, wounded the teamster, killed four horses and ten cattle, and burned several wagous with contents.

THE EASTERN WAR.

Capture of Brelopelje-The Turks Entrenched at Izoor-Three Russian Countesses in Servian Hospitals.

&c., &c. CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 3.-Official dispatches state that the Turks have captured the Servian fortified positions near Gurgusovats, inflicting heavy loss. The Turkish losses are smaller. It is believed that the Servian General Tchoynaeff is at Saitschar.

The defensive position of the Servians at Saitchar is reported impregnable. The Servian left wing has taken Brelopolje. The Turks are entrenched at Izoor, Their corps of observation is 6,000 strong on the Danube, opposite Roumania. Large sums from a Russian committee received at Belgrade. Three Russian countesses are in Servian hospitals. Austria is strengthening her garrison at Semlin. Russia is sending troops to the frontiers. The Eastern prospeet again looks gloomy. Muhktar Pacha's position is reported difficult. Montenegrins occupy his lines of communication, except towards Ragusa. There are apprehensions at Belgrade that Austria will occupy Servia with military force in the interest of European peace.
